SWANSON UPDATE: The time has arrived for us to return to Mexico. We travel to Oaxaca on April 19, we anticipate a quick transition into the rhythms of serving in Mexico. We will live at the Mitla Center in one of the fully furnished guest apartments. We will be renting group-owned vehicles as we move around the area. We will stay for about 2 months. Ed and I will be meeting with our new supervisor, Jona, who is in charge of facilities in Mexico City, Oaxaca City, Mitla (MEXICO) and Tucson, AZ. There are many potential projects but there is no clarity which project will be first. Ed's type of projects while in Mexico will be more hands-on. Melissa's projects will be administrative/computer-based types of projects. Melissa won't begin these projects until her time as Acting Personnel Director ends sometime in May.

Prayers:

- Travel and settling into Oaxaca
- Good interactions with Jona (and reunions with co-workers!)

- Personnel issues: There have been many difficult, confidential issues among our people. Much wisdom needed!

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! The Oregon community and St. John's members, family and friends made the St. John's 'Fish Fry Fundraiser' a big success! Even with the weather not totally cooperating, there was a good turn out for the three events. 1,235 dinners were served, and a total of $4,000 was raised, with those funds going to Oregon Area Food Pantry, NINA and HELPING HANDS (all local). A special thank you goes out to all the hard workers that made the fish fries possible. Your hours of labor are greatly appreciated.

NEW TAX EXEMPT NUMBER – St. John's has a new tax exempt number. Be sure to check in with the office if you make church purchases.
